Financial Claims Scheme

We are an insurance company authorised under the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth) (Insurance Act) to carry on general insurance business in Australia by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) and are subject to the prudential requirements of the Insurance Act.

Because of this we are exempted from the requirement to meet the compensation arrangements Australian financial services licensees must have in place to compensate retail clients for loss or damage suffered because of breaches by the licensee or its representatives of Chapter 7 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). We have compensation arrangements in place that are in accordance with the Insurance Act.

In the unlikely event that we were to become insolvent and were unable to meet our obligations under the policy, a person entitled to claim may be entitled to payment under the Financial Claims Scheme. Access to the Scheme is subject to eligibility criteria. Please refer to www.fcs.gov.au or call the APRA hotline on 1300 55 88 49 for more information.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into this contract of insurance, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth).

The duty applies until we first agree to insure you, and where relevant, until we agree to any subsequent variation, extension, reinstatement or renewal (as applicable).

Answering our questions

In all cases, if we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else that you want to be covered by the contract.

Variations, extensions and reinstatements

For variations, extensions and reinstatements, you have a broader duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

Renewal

Where we offer renewal, we may, in addition to or instead of asking specific questions, give you a copy of anything you have previously told us and ask you to tell us if it has changed. If we do this, you must tell us about any change or tell us that there is no change.

If you do not tell us about a change to something you have previously told us, you will be taken to have told us that there is no change.

What you do not need to tell us

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Updating the PDS

From time to time and where permitted by law, we may change parts of the PDS. We will issue you with a new PDS or a Supplementary PDS or other compliant document to update the relevant information except in limited cases. Any updates which are not materially adverse to you from the view of a reasonable person deciding whether to buy this insurance may be found on the Custom Home Insurance website at www.customhomeinsurance.com.au

Significant Features and Benefits

Landlords Insurance is specifically tailored to the needs of residential property investors. Your policy provides you with financial protection for your building and/or your contents, depending on whether you have chosen Section 1 – Landlords Building Insurance and/or Section 2 – Landlords Contents Insurance. Your building and/or contents are covered for accidental loss or damage.

Additional cover for loss of rent is optional under Section 3 – Loss of Rent Insurance. The ‘Basic Cover’ option provides valuable protection of your rental income if your building becomes uninhabitable or access prevented to the building as a result of accidental loss or damage covered by this policy. The ‘Extended Cover’ option also covers loss of rent if a tenant defaults on rent payments, vacates the property without appropriate notice, is legally evicted, or if a relevant authority terminates the lease or rental agreement on the grounds of hardship. The ‘Extended Cover’ option is not available for holiday rentals.

Cover for your legal liability as owner and/or occupier of the building is automatically provided under Section 4 – Legal Liability Insurance.

Benefits payable under your policy are detailed in the relevant section. Some benefits are payable within the limit of your sum insured, while others are payable in addition to your sum insured. It is important that you select an adequate sum insured.

In addition to the protection provided by your policy, we offer the following important benefits:

- various discounts – refer to ‘Cost of Your Policy’ section of the policy;
- a choice of payment methods – refer to ‘Cost of Your Policy’ section of the policy, including monthly instalments;
- a choice of excesses – refer to ‘Excess’ section of the policy;
- new for old replacement;
- automatic indexation of your building and/or contents sums insured – refer to ‘Automatic Indexation’ section of the policy.

Cost of Your Policy

The amount that we charge you for this insurance when you first acquire your policy and when you renew your policy is called the premium. The premium is the total that we calculate when considering all of the factors which make up the risk, such as:

- the insured value of the building or its contents (the sums insured);
- the construction material of the building;
- the location;
- type and use of any property being insured;
- your previous insurance and claims history.

The total cost of your policy is shown on your policy schedule and is made up of your premium plus Government Taxes such as, GST, Stamp Duty and Fire Service Fees.

Your total insurance premium will also include any discounts that you may be entitled to receive. We currently offer a range of standard discounts including:

- if you have combined building and contents cover;
- if you have not made a claim in the last 1, 2 or 3 years;
- if the building has a sprinklered fire prevention system.

We may also offer special discounts to some customer groups.

Paying your premium

Various options are available for paying your premium including:

- annual payment by cheque, credit card or cash;
- monthly or annual instalments by direct debit from your credit card or bank, building society or credit union account.

An instalment fee will apply if you choose to pay in monthly instalments by direct debit. A credit card processing fee may also apply on all credit card transactions (annual and instalment payments).

What happens if you do not pay the cost of your policy by the due date?

We will have the right to cancel your policy if you do not pay your premium by the due date or if your payment method is dishonoured and therefore we have not received your payment by the due date. Unless we tell you, any payment reminder we send does not change the expiry of your cover or the due date of your premium.

Paying by instalments

Where you pay your premium by instalments the following will apply:

- We will not pay any claim if at the time the incident giving rise to the claim occurred, at least one instalment of premium remained unpaid for 14 days or more.
- Where you pay your premium by monthly instalments and we have not received an instalment payment, we will send you a notice in writing regarding your non-payment at least 14 calendar days before any cancellation by us for non-payment.

If after sending the above notice we do not receive the instalment payment, we will send you a second notice in writing, either:

- a. prior to cancellation, informing you that your policy is being cancelled for non-payment; or
 - b. within 14 days after cancellation by us, confirming our cancellation of your policy.
- In the event of a claim, any balance of the annual premium will become due before settlement of the claim. Alternatively, it may be deducted from the settlement of your claim.
 - If the financial institution holding your account returns or dishonours a direct debit payment due to lack of funds in your account, we will charge you for any direct or indirect costs which we incur arising from the payment being returned or dishonoured.

Other costs, fees and charges

Other costs, fees and charges which may be applicable to the purchase of your policy include:

Costs or fees	Details

Costs or fees	Details
Credit Card Processing Fee	A credit card processing fee may apply on all credit card transactions. A surcharge of up to 0.99% inclusive of GST of the total cash amount depending on the type of credit card used may apply. The percentage payable will be shown on your tax invoice. Excess

Your policy has a standard excess of $300 for each claim made under the 'Landlords Building Insurance', 'Landlords Contents Insurance', 'Loss of Rent Insurance – Basic Cover', or 'Legal Liability Insurance' sections. You can also choose from the following alternative excesses – $500 or $1,000. The excess you have chosen will be shown on your policy schedule. Your premium will be reduced if you choose a higher than standard excess.

In addition to the selected excess, you will be required to pay a further excess of:

- $400 for loss or damage caused by theft or malicious acts by tenants or their visitors;
- $200 for loss or damage caused by earthquake;
- $2,000 for loss or damage caused by flood.

If you make a claim under the 'Loss of Rent Insurance – Extended Cover' section your excess will be an amount equal to 4 weeks rent.

GST Information

When we make a payment for the acquisition of goods, services or other supply, we will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any GST input tax credit that you are, or will be, or would have been, entitled to in relation to that acquisition, whether or not that acquisition is actually made.

When we make a payment under this policy as compensation (instead of payment for the acquisition of goods, services or other supply) we will reduce the amount of our payment by the amount of any GST input tax credit that you would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to acquire such goods, services or other supply.

Automatic Indexation

To provide some protection against the effects of inflation we adjust the sums insured for your building and contents each year as your policy becomes due for renewal. The sums insured are adjusted by a percentage amount determined by us from time to time to approximate movements in home building costs and the rate of inflation. Your renewal invitation will show the adjusted sums insured and the premium payable. You may choose to vary the sums insured prior to renewing your policy.

In addition, in the event of a claim for a total loss during the period of insurance we will adjust the sums insured for your building and contents in line with movements in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), as published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics, between the last policy renewal date and the date of the total loss. For example, if your building was insured for $200,000 and the CPI has increased by 3% between your last renewal and the time of the total loss of your building, we will increase your cover for your claim to $206,000.

Significant Risks

Your duty of disclosure

You are obliged to provide reliable information and to comply with 'Your Duty of Disclosure' shown above which outlines your disclosure obligations and the consequences of not complying with these obligations.

Under insurance

It is important for you to select a sum insured that fully reflects the current, full replacement value of your property. Please discuss this with your broker.

Conditions, exclusions and policy limits

Read this PDS carefully so that you are fully aware of the cover provided by the policy and the conditions, exclusions and policy limits that apply to your insurance.

Failure to pay your insurance premium

For your insurance to remain operational you must pay the insurance premium by the due date. Refer to 'Cancellation' section of the policy.

- if your building is part of a strata title development, causing loss or damage to other parts of the strata title development and preventing access to your building.

For any one loss this benefit covers the weekly rental amount stated in your lease or rental agreement and shown on your policy schedule for up to 52 weeks from the date of the loss.

If your rental property was not tenanted at the time the accidental loss or damage covered by this policy occurred causing it to become uninhabitable, this benefit covers the amount your rental property could reasonably have been leased or rented for prior to the loss or damage or prevention of access for up to 52 weeks from the date of the loss provided:

- your rental property was advertised as being available for lease or rent in the 14 days prior to the accidental loss or damage covered by this policy occurring; and

- a lease or rental agreement expired less than 60 days prior to the accidental loss or damage covered by this policy occurring; and
- your rental property was not unoccupied for more than 60 consecutive days prior to the accidental loss or damage covered by this policy occurring.

We will only pay a claim under this section 'Basic Cover' if the event causing accidental loss or damage to your building or contents, or preventing access to your building, occurs during the period of insurance.

We will only cover the loss of rent while your building remains uninhabitable as a result of the event.

The standard policy excess applies to claims under this 'Basic Cover' section.

Extended Cover

The extended cover option is not available for holiday rentals.

We pay for the loss of rent when:

- your tenant defaults on rent payments due under the lease or rental agreement and fails to remedy the default; or
- your tenant vacates your rental property before the end of the tenancy period stated in your lease or rental agreement without giving the required notice; or
- your tenant is legally evicted from your rental property; or
- your lease or rental agreement is legally terminated by the relevant authority on the grounds of hardship on the part of your tenant.

If a claim can be made under more than one event you may only claim under one of the events. It is your choice as to which event you wish to claim under.

This benefit covers the weekly rental amount stated in your lease or rental agreement and shown on your policy schedule:

- for a period of up to 15 weeks; or
- up to $10,000;

whichever is the lesser.

When a lease or rental agreement has defaulted to a periodic tenancy agreement, the benefit payable if your tenant vacates your rental property without giving the required notice is limited to 8 weeks rent.

When you or your agent have issued your tenant with a Notice to Leave or equivalent notice valid under the relevant residential tenancies legislation, the benefit payable if your tenant vacates your rental property without giving notice is limited to 2 weeks rent.

We will only pay a claim under this section 'Extended Cover' if:

- there was a valid lease or rental agreement in place at the commencement of this insurance;
- rent payments were up to date at the commencement of this insurance;
- your tenant has paid at least 4 consecutive weeks rent in accordance with the lease or rental agreement, excluding any bond money paid;
- your tenant breaches your lease or rental agreement; and
- you have promptly taken all reasonable steps under any applicable residential tenancies legislation to remedy any breach or non-payment and, if appropriate, to evict your tenant.

Any benefit payable for loss of rent will cease when another tenant occupies your rental property.

An excess of 4 weeks rent applies to claims made under this 'Extended Cover' section.

Additional Benefits

We provide the following benefits in addition to your sum insured when the cost is related to a claim we have agreed to cover.

Removal of rubbish

If we have accepted a claim under the 'Extended Cover' section we will also pay up to $500 for the cost incurred, with our approval, to remove rubbish left by your tenant. We will only do this if your tenant has vacated your rental property before the end of the tenancy period stated in your lease or rental agreement without giving the required notice and left your rental property in state unfit for occupation for at least 14 days. For any one period of insurance this benefit is limited to $500.

Legal expenses

If we have accepted a claim under the 'Extended Cover' section we will also pay up to $3,000 toward legal expenses incurred, with our approval, for the purpose of minimising the claim. For any one period of insurance this benefit is limited to $5,000.

How We Will Settle Your Loss of Rent Claim

Basic Cover option

We will pay you the loss of rent for the period your rental property is uninhabitable up to a maximum of 52 weeks. We will not pay more than the weekly rental amount shown in your policy schedule. We will deduct the standard excess shown on your policy schedule.

Extended Cover option

We will not pay for the first 4 weeks loss of rent.

We will pay you the weekly rental amount for the period your tenant has defaulted in rent payments beyond the first 4 weeks up to the limit of your policy. We will pay up to 15 weeks rent or $10,000, whichever is the lesser.
