We will refund the entire premium paid for cover under this insurance Policy if you cancel the Policy within 21 days of its commencement. To do this, you must advise us in writing and return the Schedule to Axis Underwriting Services Pty Ltd. You will not receive a refund if you have made a claim under the insurance Policy.

Even after this cooling off period ends you still have cancellation rights. Further details about these rights can be obtained in the 'Cancelling Your Policy' section.

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of insurance, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth)(ICA) to disclose anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, or in the case of consumer contracts (as defined in Part IV of the ICA)(Consumer Contracts) to take all reasonable care to disclose anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms. You have that duty after application, and up until the time we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk that is insured;
- is of common knowledge; or
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

If you are uncertain about whether or not a particular matter should be disclosed to us, please contact us.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to take reasonable care in disclosing information to us in the case of Consumer Contracts, or do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount that we are required to pay you if you make a claim or both. If your failure to disclose is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Monetary Limits

We insure you up to the amount of the sum insured or other specified limits for your insured property. These amounts are specified in the relevant clauses in the Policy Wording or on the Schedule.

Covers for Liability to others, Fidelity Guarantee, Office Bearers Legal Liability, Machinery Breakdown, Government

Audit Costs and Legal Expenses insure you up to a set limit of liability which is shown on the Schedule.

You need to make sure you are happy with all of the relevant sum(s) insured and limits. If you do not adequately insure yourself you may have to bear the uninsured proportion of any loss yourself.

For example, if you don't have a sufficient sum insured to replace your insured property at new cost you will bear the shortfall.

You should factor in the possibility of all possible expenses such as the cost of demolition and removal of debris from the site, the cost of employing an architect or surveyor, the replacement of other structures such as driveways, roadways, kerbing, above and below ground services should all be included in the sum insured. If you are unsure whether your insured property is insured for the correct amount, you should seek professional advice.

You should also advise axis underwriting of any material changes in the details of the information you have given us, otherwise your insurance may not be sufficient. Changes might include alterations to your insured property.

Excesses may apply. See Excesses section below.

Excesses

Excesses may apply to any claim under this insurance.

An excess is an amount you may have to pay each time you make a claim under this insurance Policy. The excesses that are applicable are shown on the Schedule, and/or within the relevant Sections.

An excess will be applied for each incident where a claim is made.

We will tell you the amount of any excess when you apply for cover. They may vary according to a number of factors, such as your risk location and your insurance history.

If agreement cannot be reached on the appointment the President of the Law Society within Your State will be requested to nominate an Appointed Representative. During this period We will be entitled but not bound to instruct an Appointed Representative on Your behalf if We consider it necessary to do so to safeguard Your immediate interests.

In all cases the Appointed Representative will be appointed in Your name and will act on Your behalf.

8) Offer of settlement

You must inform Us as soon as reasonably practicable if You receive an offer to settle a Claim.

If such offer of settlement is, in our judgment, considered to be fair and reasonable and You withhold Your agreement to such a settlement and elect to continue legal proceedings Our liability will not exceed the amount of Legal Defence Expenses incurred up to the date of such settlement offer.

Further if You refuse a recommendation by the Appointed Representative to settle a Claim and elect to continue legal proceedings, Our liability will not exceed the amount of Legal Defence Expenses incurred up to the date of such refusal.

9) Our access to the appointed representative

You will do all things reasonably necessary to allow Us to obtain from the Appointed Representative any information, report documents or advice relating to the Claim. However You will not be prejudiced if the Appointed Representative refuses to make such information, report documentation or advice available to Us on the grounds that to do so might prejudice Your interests in any litigation that is involved or may be commenced.

10) Recovery of legal defence expenses

If You are awarded costs, You must take all reasonable steps to recover such fees and expenses for which You are indemnified by this Policy. All such fees and expenses actually recovered will be taken into account when calculating Our liability.

11) Reporting and notice

A specific Claim will be considered to have been first reported to Us at the time You first give written notice to Us of the receipt of written or oral notice from any party or entity that it is the intention of such party or entity to hold You responsible for a civil or criminal act.

12) Subrogation

In the event of a payment under this Policy to or on Your behalf We will, subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, be subrogated to all Your rights of recovery of Legal Defence Expenses against all persons or organisations and You will execute and deliver instruments and papers and do all that is necessary to assist Us in the exercise of such rights.
